DISCONTENT

Discontent is want of self-reliance: it is infirmity of will.

-Emerson.

Whether you are a man or woman you will never do anything in this world without courage. It is the greatest quality of the mind next to honour.-James L. Allen.

Those old stories of visions and dreams guiding men have their truth; we are saved by making the future present to ourselves.

-George Eliot.

IDLENESS

Too much idleness. I have observed, fills up a man's time more completely and leaves him less his own master, than any sort of employment whatever .- Burke.

Conversation should be pleasant. without scurrility, witty without affectation, free without indency, learned without conceitedness. novel without falsehood.

-Shakespeare.

It is an easy and vulgar thing to please the mob, and not a very ardous task to astonish them; but especially to benefit and to improve them is a work fraught with difficulty, and teeming with danger. -Colton.

Delude not yourself with the notion that you may be untrue and uncertain in trifles and in important things the contrary. Trifles make up existence, and give the observer the measure by which to try us: and the fearful power of habit, after a time, suffers not the best will to ripen into action.

-C. M. von Weber.

He who has health has hope, and he who has hope has everything.—Arabic Proverb.

In judging of others, a man laboreth in vain-often erreth and easily sinneth; but in judging and examining himself, he always laboreth fruitfully.

-Thomas a Kempis.

As the land is improved by sowing it with various seeds, so is the mind by exercising it with different studies .- Melmoth.

The world is a great book, of which they that never stir from home read only a page.

-St. Augustine.

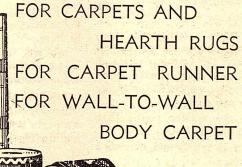

Small kindnesses, small courtesies, small considerations habitualy practised in our social intercourse, give a greater charm to the character than the display of great talents and accomplishments.

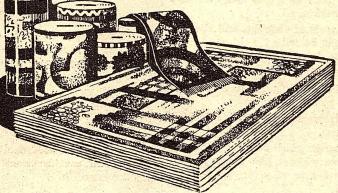

-M. A. Kelly

I congratulate poor young men upon being born to that ancient and honourable degree which renders it necessary that they should devote themselves to hard work.

DISCRETION

Discretion is the perfection of reason, and a guide to us in all the duties of life; cunning is a kind of instinct that only looks out after our immediate interests and welfare. Discretion is only found in men of strong sense and good understanding; cunning is often to be met with in brutes themselves, and in persons who are but the fewest removes from them.

-Bruyere.

*The only hope of preserving what is best lies in the practice of an immense charity, a wide tolerance, a sincere respect for opinions, that are not ours.

Mind is the master power that moulds and makes,

And man is mind, and evermore he takes.

The tools of thought, and shaping what he wills

Brings forth a thousand joys, a thousand ills.

He thinks in secret and it comes to pass;

Environment is but his looking glass.

Learn good humour, never to oppose without just reason; abate some degree of pride and moroseness.

LAZINESS

Laziness grows on people; it begins in cobwebs, and ends in iron chains. The more business a man has to do, the more he is able to accomplish; for he learns to economise his time.

I have had more trouble with myself than with any other man I have ever met.—Dwight L. Moody Doing what can't be done, is the glory of living.

-Samuel C. Armstrong.

If wrinkles must be written upon our brow, let them not be written upon the heart. The spirit should not grow old.

-James A. Garfield.

Opportunity never seems to knock except when we are extremely busy.

It's not which way the wind blows, but the way you set your sails.—Anon.

Life is, after all, pretty much what we ourselves make it. And we make it by the kind of impulses we receive and broadcast.

-Jerome P. Fleishman.

Honorable industry always travels the same road with enjoyement and duty, and progress is altogether impossible without it.

-Samuel Smiles.

A man who does not learn to live while he is getting a living, is a poorer man after his wealth is won than he was before.

-J. G. Holland.

He who has not the spirit of his age has all the misery of it.

—Voltaire.

The weakest spot in every man is where he thinks himself to be the wisest.—Emmons.

Many men owe the gradeur of their lives to their tremendous difficulties.—Spurgeon.

FOR ALL CYCLE REQUIREMENTS

Complete range of cycles and accessories

Hint for Campers

To keep jellies, fruit, milk, butter, lettuce, etc., cool and away from flies, place one wooden box in a bigger one, fill the space with sand and keep moist. Fit the smaller box with a lid, and into it put all the goodies. This will be found invaluable.

About Flour-bags

To remove the brand from calico flour-bags, take a small piece of lard or mutton fat, smear all over the brand, and roll the bag tightly in a ball. Leave two or three days—then wash in the ordinary way. All trace of the brand will have disappeared.

For Lady Gardeners.

Before gardening or doing any rough work which will soil your hands, make yourself a pair of soap gloves. Dip a cake of soap in water and rub it over your hands until the soap is quite dry. Repeat the process until the hands are thickly coated with the soap. This proves a splendid protection and soap and dirt can be washed off together in a moment.

Honey Cures Stings

Smear some honey over the injured parts and the effect is wonderful; keep honey applied till all irritation has ceased. Honey allays the pain of any sting, including gnats or mosquitoes, and some should always be kept in the house.

When loose covers are being made boil the piping cord before using. This prevents puckers when the cover is washed.

The Right Way to Wash Hair-Brushes

Put a tablespoonful of ammonia into a quart of water; wash your brushes and combs in this, and all dirt will disapear. Rinse, shake, and dry in the sun or in the open air.

Keeping Carpets Flat

Attach a leather button-hole from an old pair of braces, cutting a piece about 3 inches long, to each corner of the mat or runner. Sew on so that they are not seen under the mat. Slip button-hole over top of clout head tacks driven into floor, in order to hold the mat firmly in position. This will prevent mats and runners from wrinkling.

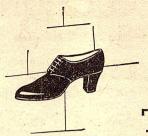

Keeping Bread

To keep bread from getting dry, wrap each loaf in paper before placing it in the container. It will open up moist.

Cleaning Bronze

Bronze rubbed with oil and polished with a soft duster will come beautifully clean.

Make your own dustless dustclothes by soaking old knitted underwear in kerosene for 24 hours and then drying thoroughly.

CASHEL STREET - - Near the Bridge of Remembrance

An Excellent Hint.—Next time you give baby an apple to eat, first peel it, and then pass a tape through the centre and tie it around the child's neck. This makes it very much easier to grasp and also prevents it being dropped overboard into the mud.

When making a boiled pudding it is a good plan to put a strip of orange peel into the water. This collects the grease and the pudding cloth will be quite easy to wash.

Tar

Soften the spots with lard; then soak with turpentine. With a knife, scrape off the loose surface dirt; then sponge until clean with turpentine, and rub gently until dry.

Ink Stains

Soak in sour milk, and if a dark stain still remains rinse in a weak solution of chloride of lime.

Another method is to almost fill a basin with boiling water, and cover with a piece of clean tin, such as a plate. Place stained material on the tin plate, and rub with tartaric acid.

Polishing Cloth for Silver-Ware Put 2 dessertspoons Goddards plate powder, 2 tablespoons ammonia and 1 cup boiling water in a basin. Then take a piece of soft cloth (a piece of old sheeting or flannetette is good). Soak up all the mixture, but do not wring out, then hang on the line to dry. When washing silver-ware, dry with this cloth and you will do away with the tedious undertaking of "silver-cleaning."

Smokers' Hands

If a man is a heavy smoker, and nicotine has stained his fingers and nails, the stains can easily be removed with a mixture of peroxide and lemon juice. This is remarkably effective, and will help to keep the skin white.

Tea Stains

Tea stains may be removed from linen by mixing together equal quantities of egg yolk and glcerine and rubbing well into the stains. Allow to dry, then rinse the article in cold water.

Paper on Clothes Line

When drying any delicate materials, it is wisest to put a sheet of paper on the clothes line before pegging out the garments. This simple procedure will prevent an ugly line being left, which is often almost impossible to iron out.

Damp Salt

During the damp weather a small piece of blotting paper at the bottom of the salt cellars, put in before the salt, will absorb all the moisture, and so stop the salt from clogging together in that irritating fashion.

Remedy for Sprains

White of 1 egg, 1 tablespoon of best turpentine, 1 tablespoon of good vinegar.

Directions: Mix together in a bottle. Shake well and apply to the sprain as soon as possible.

Cleaner for Porcelain Baths.

Mix carbonate of soda in a saucer with turpentine and rub on bath, a small quantity of each of this will surprise you.

When Spring Cleaning .

Use equal parts of mineral turps, and raw linseed oil, and vinegar for the furniture. Citronella can be added if the smell is objectionable.

New Brooms

"New brooms sweep clean," but yours will be so to the very end if treated in this way directly you buy it. Tie the strands together, and soak them for two hours in a pail of boiling water, then dry for two hours before using.

Wax-polishing mops should be steeped, before being washed, in a hot, strong, soda solution. Afterwards, wash them in a new lot of hot strong, soda solution, adding soap to form a lather.

Cleaning Pearls

A pearl necklace is so easy to clean at home Simply put it in a tin of powdered magnesia and leave all night. When you take it out in the morning, gently brush off the powder.

Cure for Burns

Lime-water and linseed oil (raw), half of each. Put in a bottle and shake until it emulsifies. Apply to affected parts.

Carbonate of soda or cornflower gives instant relief to a burn or scald. It may be applied either wet or dry to the burned part. The sense of relief is magical. It seems to draw out the heat and with it the pain. The white of an egg smeared on the burn or scald, kept moist and exposed will also give instant relief.

To Remove Stains

Fruit Stains.—Stretch fabric over a basin and pour boiling water through. If stain has been there for some time, remove by soaking in weak solution of oxalic acid, or by holding over sulphur fumes.

Mildew.—Soak in a weak solution of chloride of lime for several hours, rinse in cold water.

Pitch, Wheel-grease or Tar Stains.

—Soften the stains with lard, then soak in turpentine scrape off the loose surface dirt, sponge with turpentine and rub dry.

Scorch Stains on linen can be removed by rubbing with powdered borax.

Iodine Stains on Furniture.— Olive oil and salt will remove iodine stains from furniture.

To Clean Gilt Frames.—Rub gently with a camel hair brush dipped in white of egg.

A Sewing Hint

A piece of tape tacked firmly down one side of each seam after machining will stop a flared skirt from dropping at the sides.

To Revivify Faded Flowers, cut off about two inches from the bottom of each stem, and place into a bowl of very hot water to which about a teaspoon of salt has been added or a little ammonia or camphor added to the water also helps to restore the flowers.

Wood Ash for Tiles

A little wood ash put in a solution of soft soap and warm water will clean modern tiles most beautifully. It is particularly useful for removing soot from them.

Cane Chairs

To tighten up the cane seats of chairs, sponge them on both sides with strong salt water. Leave them to dry and they will be like new.

A gentleman feeling a bit fed up with life decided to commit suicide by hanging himself. A friend came into the room and discovered him standing with a rope round his waist, and he inquired what he was trying to do. The gentleman told him he was taking his own life.

"But," said his friend, "why have you the rope round your waist?"

"Well," said the man, "when I tied it round my neck it was choking me."

"What part of the car causes the most accidents?"

"The nut that holds the wheel."

Little Algernon had a bad habit. He chewed his finger nails.

The doctor said to put something that did not taste sweet on his finger nails. We put arsenic.

It worked beautifully. Little Algernon does not chew his finger nails any more.

Mother went to hospital once again, much to the dismay of her five-year-old son.

"Don't let them palm off another baby on to you this time," the lad told his mother. "This time I want a pup."

A farmer brought home a parrot as a birthday present for his wife. Not understanding why the bird had a string attached to each leg, she asked for the explanation.

"Pull one and see," her husband said.

She pulled the string on the right leg and the parrot said: "Good afternoon, Madam."

Then she pulled the other string and the parrot promply responded, "Pleased to meet you."

"I wonder what would happen if I pulled both strings together," she remarked.

"I'd fall off my perch, you darn fool," said the parrot.

A clergyman stayed at an hotel frequented by practical jokers. The guests used their artillery of wit upon him without eliciting a remark.

At last one of them said in despair, "Well, I wonder at your patience! Have you not heard all that has been said to you?"

"Oh, yes, but I'm used to it. I'm the chaplain of a lunatic asylum."

"Dad, why is a man not allowed to have more than one wife?"

"My son, when you are older boy will realise that the law protects those who are incapable of protecting themselves." For FURS of Distinction

CREAMED BLACKBERRIES

Peel and slice 2 large cooking apples, and stew them with 1lb of ripe blackberries, 4ozs. of sugar, 1oz. gelatine and the rind of 1 lemon.

As soon as the fruit is soft enough to rub through sieve, stir in the gelatine, previously dissolved in 2 tablespoons of water. Have ready ½ pint of stiff custard or cream, and when the puree is lukewarm stir it in. Turn all into a well-rinsed mould and let it set.

FRUIT FLUMMERY

Two dessertspoons gelatine, 1 cup hot water, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, ½ cup fruit juice, juice of ½ a lemon.

Mix flour to a smooth paste with a little cold water. Add fruit juice and sugar to the hot water. Carefully add the flour and boil for 5 minutes. Add gelatine dissolved in a 4 cup of hot water. Mix well and leave to cool. Then whisk until thick and foamy. Add any chopped fruit available and pour into a bowl to set.

ORANGE SOUFFLE

Put into a saucepan ½lb sugar, juice of 3 oranges and rind of 2 (grated), yolks of 3 eggs. Stir until it thickens—must not boil—then let it cool. Dissolve ½oz. gelatine in ½ cup water and stir into the mixture. Add ½ pint cream, stir all together, fold in the stifflywhipped whites of eggs and pour into a wetted mould to set.

CHARLOTTE PEAR

Six pears, 1 pint water, 2ozs. sugar, juice of 1 lemon, sponge cakes, coconut, 1 pint custard, white of 1 egg. Stew the pears till tender in syrup of sugar and water and lemon juice. Line bottom of buttered pie-dish with slices of sponge cake, sprinkled with coconut. Put the pears in and pour the custard over, brown in a moderate oven, then cover with white of egg, whisked to a stiff froth. Add 1 tablespoon sugar. Lightly brown the meringue and serve cold.

APPLE SNOW

Two large apples, 1 tablesponn sugar, 2 tablespoons water, lemon rind, 1 egg white, whipped cream.

Cook the apples with sugar, water, and grated rind; then rub through a sieve and allow to get cold. Add stiffly beaten white of egg, and whipped cream, and pile in a glass dish. Serve with wafer biscuits.

LEMON PIE

Line a dish with pastry and fill with the following: Grated rind and juice of a lemon, 1 cup breadcrumbs, \(\frac{3}{2} \) cup sugar, 1 cup hot water, yolk of 2 eggs; small piece of butter. Bake in crust as a custard. When done, beat up egg whites stiffly, add 2 tablespoons sugar, pile on top of pie and bake till golden brown.

SPICED GOOSEBERRY SPONGE

Top and tail 1lb. green gooseberries and put in pie-dish with ½ cup sugar. Melt 2ozs. butter (or substitute), add ½ cup golden syrup, 1 beaten egg, 1 tablespoon milk. To this mixture now add ½ teacups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon ground ginger, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon; ½ cup shredded or dessicated coconut, pinch of salt. Beat well, spread over gooseberries and sprinkle with coconut. Bake in moderate oven for 30 minutes.

APPLE ROLL PUDDING

One cup water, 1 tablepsoon syrup, \(\frac{3}{4} \) cup sugar, put in saucepan and boil. Rub 2 ozs. butter into 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder and a little salt. Mix stiff with milk. Roll out and shred two large apples all over, roll it up and cut into slices. Put in pie dish and pour the boiling syrup over. Bake \(\frac{3}{4} \) hour.

BANANA TRIFLE

Place some vanilla biscuits round a glass dish and cover with sliced bananas, over which pour the juice of 1 lemon and 1 orange. Make a custard with 3 pint of milk, 1 teaspoon cornflower, 1 egg. Pour while hot over fruit. When cool sprinkle lightly browned dessicated coconut over top.

PUDDINGS

BAKED ROLY POLY

One cup flour, ½ teaspoon of soda, pinch salt, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, ½ cup dripping. Water to mix, make paste and spread with jam. Roll up and place in buttered dish. Dissolve ½ cup sugar, 1 tablespoon butter with 1 cup boiling water. Pour over roly poly and bake about ¾ hour.

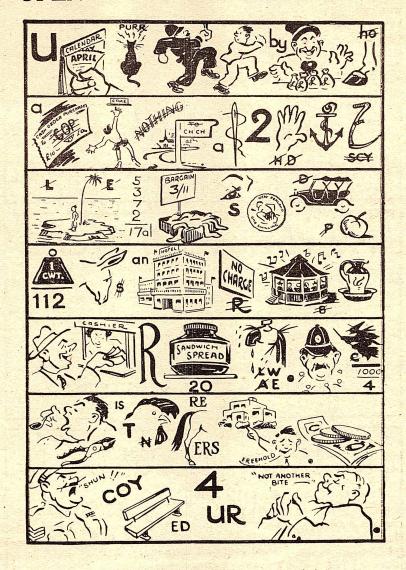

FRUIT SALAD FRITTERS

Chop in bowl 2 each of ripe peaches, nectarines, apricots and soft pears. In another basin dissolve 1 teaspoon baking soda in 2 cups sour milk and stir in 3 egg yolks. Now sift in 3 cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon icing sugar, finally adding stiffly-beaten egg whites. Fold in mixed fruit lightly and drop in spoonful lots into hot fat. Sift over with icing sugar and serve hot.

ARABIAN PUDDING

Mix on a plate loz. brown sugar and loz. flour. Thickly spread this over the inside of a plum pudding basin. Roll out some short pastry and press carefully into the basin, leaving enough at the top to fold over and form top crust. Fill basin with alternate layers of sliced apples and stoned and cut-up dates. Sprinkle each layer with brown sugar and squeeze the juice of 1 lemon over whole. Moisten edge of pastry and fold over. Bake in moderate oven for 1 hour. Turn out and serve on hot dish with custard into which cream and a spoonful of brandy (if procurable) have been folded.

CO-OPERATION

What it means to you

In 1938 the retailers of Christchurch decided to form their own central credit organisation for the better servicing of the buying public, with the result, that Cash Order Purchases Limited was formed by 70 retailers who invested their money and reputation. (To-day over 250 shops in Christchurch welcome C.O.P. Orders). The integrity of these firms is closely woven into C.O.P. and on account of the terms and service given by both the retailers and ourselves, we have convinced the Christchurch public that Cash Order Purchases Limited offers the best form of deferred payment. This has resulted in a well-organised, co-operative business maintaining to the public a first-class service, at the same accomodation fee it charged when it first commenced operations in 1938; namely one shilling for every one pound required.

The following example of a typical transaction will give a clearer understanding of how a C.O.P. Order is used and what the total cost is to the user:

A client of ours, when shopping, sees an article priced £6/5/- which she wishes to obtain from one of our retailers, and, as she does not happen to have the ready money with her at the moment, she calls at our office and asks for a "C.O.P." Order for £6/5/- on this supplier. Our client is then charged an accommodation fee of 1/- for every £1 she requires, so that in this case her additional cost is 6/3, which makes her total and final account £6/11/3. On receipt of the Order, she pays a deposit of 2/- in the Pound, namely 12/6, and pays the balance then owing, £5/18/9, at the rate of (1/- for every £1)—6/3 weekly until the account is paid in full, the period of credit being approximately 5 months. Clients may arrange for payments to be made to us weekly, fortnightly or monthly, which ever is the most convenient. Our client then presents this Order to the firm nominated therein and they complete the transaction for us by supplying her with the goods selected.

There are, perhaps, many people who feel sensitive about transacting business with "money lenders," and at the same time feel that interest charges may be high. CASH ORDER PURCHASES LIMITED is not a money lending firm, but a centralized depot created by the retailers themselves to make available to the public the advantages of credit terms. It will be seen that this Company is here for your protection—to see that charges for terms are reasonable—to give you a wide choice of goods—and to let you obtain immediate possession of goods with payments spread over approximately five months. Clients may rest assured that every transaction is treated in the strictest confidence and that our courteous and willing staff will be pleased to furnish them with every assistance in their buying problems.

Remember this, FOR ALL PERSONS, THE SYSTEM AND THE TERMS, THE POLICY AND SERVICE, ARE THE SAME.

If you require information regarding C.O.P. orders, please call at our office, 134 Oxford Terrace, or ring telephone 34-780, when we will be pleased to supply you with any information you may require.

HUMOUR

The country lad was showing a pretty city miss his property. While they were watching a calf with its mother, the mother rubbed noses with its offspring.

The youth plucked up his courage and said: "Gee isn't that nice, I'd like to do that."

The miss replied: "Go right ahead—it's your cow."

Pat, having secured a free night's lodging in a haunted house, was awakened by a ghostly voice which moaned:

"There's only you and me . . . there's only you and me . . . "

"Faith, an' there'll only be yourself as soon as I get me second boot on," was the reply.

"Look at that girl dressed up like a man. I call it idiotic."

"Pardon me, sir, that is my son."

"Oh, I'm so sorry, I didn't know you were his father."

"I'm not. I'm his mother."

Lawyer (to police witness): "If a man is on his hands and knees in the middle of the street, that does not necessarily mean that he is drunk."

Witness: "No sir, but this one was trying to roll up the yellow line."

HUMOUR

The police were hunting for a criminal, but the only picture of him they had was a strip of six photographs.

This strip was sent to a country town, and shortly afterwards the following telegram reached the branch which had sent out the pictures.

"Have found four of the wanted men. Hope to get the other two soon."

When Kelly, the schoolmaster promised a shilling to the scholar who correctly named the greatest man who ever lived, it was little Ikey Cohen who won—naming St. Patrick

"Tell me," asked Kelly, "how a Cohen knew that St. Patrick was the greatest man that ever lived?"

"Vell," replied Isaac, "everybody knows it was Moses—but still—business is business."

NURSE MAUDE

To the older generation of Christchurch citizens, the work of Nurse Maude will need no introduction.

Born in Christchurch in August, 1862, she was educated in England, returning to New Zealand in 1880. From that time she became deeply interested in the parish work of her church, which brought her into close touch with the day-to-day needs of the sick, particularly old people in very poor circumstances.

In 1887 she returned to England and started her nursing training at Middlesex Hospital, London, where she completed her course in 1893. On her return to New Zealand in the same year, she was appointed Matron of the Christchurch Hospital, which position she filled for three years.

Her main interest, however, was in the care and attention to the sick and needy in their own homes, and in November, 1896, she began her life work and founded the Association that bears her name.

For some time she carried on her work single handed, but in 1898 a second nurse was appointed.

In 1903, with a small band of enthusiastic helpers, Nurse Maude instituted, at Wainoni, an open-air camp for sufferers from tuberculosis. Her successful pioneering of specialised treatment for this dread disease later led to the establisment by the North Canterbury Hospital Board of the Cashmere Sanatorium.

In 1918, the whole of the organisation of the nursing service for victims of the influenza epidemic in the city was organised by Nurse Maude, and in recognition of the splendid service given, the City Council granted an annual payment of £300, which provided for the appointment of two more nurses, bringing the total number of staff up to eight.

Nurse Maude passed away on July 12th, 1935, after a brief illness. Right up to this time, she had been actively associated with her work for the sick, and she had lived to see her early work grow into a Nursing Service that is unique in the history of this country.

Nurse Maude District Nursing Assocation

The Nurse Maude Association carries out its work mostly in the city of Christchurch, extending to a radius of about seven miles. It now includes permanent Nursing Service in Lyttelton, and in 1950 established a service in Rangiora.

In 1939, 12,699 nursing visits were paid to patients in their own homes; in 1950, the number had increased to 27,586.

This work is carried out by sixteen nurses, whose transport about the district is now by car. Nursing calls have increased greatly as the city has grown, and much work of a social service nature is undertaken by the Association. Many problems are dealt with daily, such as the investigation of cases of old people living in unsatisfactory conditions; the finding of accommodation in Convalescent Homes and other institutions for patients needing that care; assisting with urgent domestic problems; and many other worrying matters that frequently arise.

For some time the Association has had in view the establishment of a Convalescent Home as a permanent memorial to Nurse Maude, and as a tangible record of her long and devoted service to the community. Recently, Mrs. R. E. McDougall and her daughters offered ,on most generous terms, the use of their old home, "Fitzroy", for this purpose. This offer was gratefully accepted. The work of converting this fine home into a well-equipped 22-bed Convalescent Home has now been completed, and the Nurse Maude Memorial Convalescent Home was officially opened on 1st February last. It is impossible to think of a more fitting and gracious place to constitute the Nurse Maude Memorial Home, and it is hoped that much comfort and health-renewing service will be received by all those who spend their convalescence there.

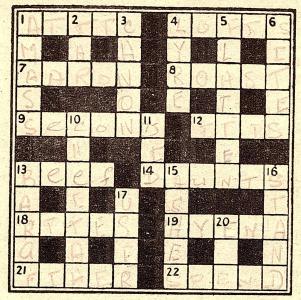

AN APPEAL

Down the years, the people of Christchurch have given generously, and have made possible the building up of a substantial Endowment Fund. During the last ten years, this has had to be substantially drawn on for the provision of cars necessary for our District Nursing Service, and further inroads are being made for the Nurse Maude Memorial Colvalescent Home. The Association receives substantial help from the Social Security Fund, but expenses are steadily mounting, so that, in order to keep its work abreast of the demand for its services, all those who are prepared to pay a small annual subscription are earnestly appealed to, to help carry on this all important work.

It is hoped to spread this appeal so that the burden will fall upon a large number of shoulders, and so keep the subscription to a comparatively small sum, and spread interest in the Association's work over a larger number of our citizens than has been possible in the past.
